

CAN I STUDY ABROAD?

YES!!! WE ARE HERE TO SHOW YOU HOW!

WHAT IS STUDY ABROAD?

Study abroad is much more than a trip—it's an intellectual and cultural adventure that will change the way you see the world, other people, and yourself. Study abroad takes a wide variety of shapes and forms, so there is a program for everyone!

WHO CAN STUDY ABROAD?

You can Study Abroad! Most of our programs do NOT have a foreign language requirement, so you don't need to know another language to participate! Also, any major on campus is able to study abroad!

WHEN CAN I STUDY ABROAD?

You can Study Abroad for anywhere from one week to an academic year in another country! You can travel as soon as the summer after your freshman year. Generally, program applications are due within the semester prior to the program's travel dates

(But note, application deadlines can range widely from six to one month prior to the start of the program!)

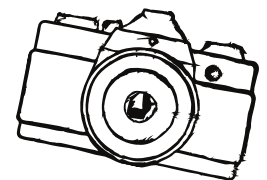

WHERE CAN I STUDY ABROAD?

We have a program that WILL fit your goals, time, budget, and passions. As an IU student, you are eligible to apply for programs offered through IU's eight campuses. You can choose from more than 250 programs in over 50 countries.

WHY SHOULD I STUDY ABROAD?

- Earn credit for your degree while experiencing the world.
- Gain confidence, adaptability, independence, communication skills, resilience, and resourcefulness.
- Build skills that will help you grow personally and professionally.
- Stand out to employers after graduation.
- Become interconnected with another culture and develop global citizenship.

HOW DO I MAKE THIS HAPPEN?

- Talk about it now! Come see us in the Study Abroad Office to understanding your programs options and navigate researching program.
- Make an appointment to talk with your academic advisor about your interest in studying abroad.
- Explore our scholarship webpage for campus and school specific opportunities.
- Start thinking into what you want to learn and experience abroad by researching study abroad programs on iAbroad!

Program details, eligibility, and application deadlines vary by program, so planning ahead is the best way to find the perfect study abroad experience for you!

BUT WAIT, I CAN'T AFFORD THIS...YES YOU CAN!

- Study abroad is a great investment in your academic and professional future. The cost varies from program to program, and we can help you find an option to meet your budget.
- Are you already receiving financial aid? Check with the Office of Student Financial Services about your aid package and ask how much of your current package you can take with you. Contact them at aidtogo@iu.edu.
- The Study Abroad Office has scholarships that range from $250 to $3,000. Check out abroad.indianapolis.iu.edu for application information and deadlines!
- Are you a Freshman or first semester transfer? Apply to receive $3,000 from our Planning Grant!
- If you are an Honors College student you have a stipend to use toward a study abroad program
- Stop by and ask us about additional scholarship options and ways to budget and save toward study abroad!
